

This is a Civilized Place for Public Discussion

Please treat this discussion forum with the same respect you would a public park. We, too, are a shared community resource — a place to share skills, knowledge and interests through ongoing conversation.

The topics discussed here matter to us, and we want you to act as if they matter to you, too. Be respectful of the topics and the people discussing them, even if you disagree with some of what is being said. In many cases, you will be arguing about 'opinion', and there may not be an objectively right or wrong answer. Please accept that other community members will have different beliefs from your own and respect that.

Dear Yolanda Adams,

Thank you for contacting our office with regards to journal entries.

Each notarized document must be captured in the journal separately. Grouping all the documents together on one line in the journal is not permissible.

You may wish to read the article "Protect Yourself: Journaling All Notarial Acts" on page 4 or our 2017 Notary Public Newsletter.

If you still have questions after reading the article, let us know.
